THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

NOVEMBER 2006

NEW YORK NOTEBOOK

A COMMUNITY AFFAIR

Downtown's wildchild from Uruguay, Luciana Achugar, presents Exhausting Love at the Danspace Project Nov. 9-12. Achugar has developed a reputation as a particularly raw yet accomplished improviser. Exhausting Love deliberately treads the line between dance and ritual, taking into account the fact that St. Mark's Church is a site of worship as well as performance. The five dancers engage in a "communal relationship" with the audience. See www.danspaceproject.org. —W.P.
